DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figures 1-2, 3A-#E, and 4-6 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

3. Claims 1-2, 7-10, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Watanabe (US 2001/0021288 A1). Watanabe discloses the following.

With regard to claims 1 and 7,

- providing a waveform shaper (fig. 8, #8) for waveform shaping input signal light (fig. 8, λ_s) and outputting signal light (fig. 8, λ_1);
- measuring quality of said output signal light (fig. 8, #26);

Art Unit: 3663

- controlling the power of the input signal light (fig. 8, #20) so that said quality measured is improved (pg. 4, paragraph [0064])

With regard to claims 2 and 8-9, said controlling step comprises the steps for providing an optical amplifier for amplifying said input signal light and a controller for adjusting the gain of the said optical amplifier and an optical attenuator for attenuating the output from said optical amplifier.

With regard to claims 10 and 13, a waveform-shaping device controlled by a variable threshold is disclosed (pg. 4, paragraphs [0063] through [0067]).

4. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hansen (US 6,323,993). Hansen discloses the following:

- providing a waveform shaper (#110) for waveform shaping input signal light (source) and outputting signal light;
- measuring quality of said output signal light (col. 3, line 60 to col. 4 line 12);
- controlling the power of the input signal light (col. 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Watanabe (US 2001/0021288 A1) in view of Hansen (US 6,323,993).

Art Unit: 3663

The applied reference has common inventors Shigeki Watanabe and Shinichi Takeda with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(a). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). For applications filed on or after November 29, 1999, this rejection might also be overcome by showing that the subject matter of the reference and the claimed invention were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person. See MPEP § 706.02(I)(1) and § 706.02(I)(2).

Watanabe does not disclose that the quality measured is a Q-factor, bit error rate, spectrum shape, or an eye opening of said output signal light. However, Hansen teaches measuring the quality of an output light (col. 3, lines 60-67) and adjusting the input signal accordingly wherein the quality is a Q-factor, bit error rate, a spectrum shape, or an eye opening (figs. 6 and 7). It would have been obvious to use any of the factors taught by Hansen as an indicator of the quality of the output signal for the advantage of assessing the quality of the signal via different measurements.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Edagawa (US 2001/005276) discloses an optical waveform shaper.
